

AUFBRUCH – COSMOLOGY OF THE BOUNDLESS

Second tap for 39NULL at Atelierhouse
Opening 24th August 2017, 19.00 h

For the second tap of their exhibition in the Atelier House, 39 Null present videos, photographs and a performance relating to the concept of the body's borders: physical and psychological dividing lines, consolidated in society and in the media through language and across generations. The exhibition tackles these dynamics and offers a symbolic premise towards the unlimited and, thus, towards freedom.

During the opening performance by Barbara Gamper with Eve Stainton, sound by Ari Robey-Lawrence aka The Neighbourhood Character.
