OCCUPY Museion
The Yoga of Stealth

22.03.2024, from 5 pm to midnight
Curated by Haunter Records and Museion Art Club
Museion -1
Piazza Piero Siena 1, Bolzano

Bolzano, March 15, 2024. To mark the opening of the exhibitions: RENAISSANCE and Ezio Gribaudo. The Weight of the Concrete, Museion Art Club, independent forum organizing events parallel to museum activities, in collaboration with Haunter Records, presents OCCUPY Museion – The Yoga of Stealth. This evening is constructed as a series of interwoven narratives and stories, a tale of non-linear paths that start from the city of Milan. The event opens at 5 pm with a talk on Macao, the former self-managed occupied space in Milan, followed by live performances by the Danish ensemble Boli Group and Cecilia, a French-Canadian composer whose work ranges between music and performance. The evening closes with a DJ set by Polish producer Lutto Lento, known for his idiosyncratic productions that break down barriers between genres and infuse electronic music with their singularity.

The story of the Italian label Haunter Records began in 2013 as a hidden voice, an "invisible" practice that continues to operate at the fringes of culture, in a constant exploration of the boundaries of language, identity, and the concepts of musical imagination and creation.

For this event, the label has been invited by Museion Art Club to give a talk about Macao Milano, an example of community self-management that opened a breach in the contemporary urban landscape through art and left behind a legacy rich in both utopian ideas and contradictions when it closed. This conversation will feature various people who experienced and animated this space in different ways and forms, including artist Emanuele Braga, writer Günseli Yalcinkaya, musicologist Luigi Monteanni and co-founder of...
Haunter Records Daniele Guerrini.

OCCUPY MUSEION is an event series that aims to facilitate interventions – both within and beyond the museum space – with music, performance, visual arts, and more. This initiative aims to transform the museum through the interventions of local, underground artists by giving them access to institutional space and empowering cultural exchange.

Museion Art Club is the main activity of Museion Art Club Forum, group outside Museion of nine young creative people dedicated to accelerating urban culture in Alto Adige. Museion Art Club is an incubator and amplifier that enables fundamental and independent interaction between the museum and urban changemakers, offering space, visibility and networking.
